

1 THE CHAIRMAN: Delegate Adkins.

2 DELEGATE ADKINS: I wonder if the Chairman
3 would try to define for me what he means by the term "func-
4 tional division". Does it mean the division of the superior
5 court may be established to function in any county, or does 6 it have some more limited meaning in the sense that a court
7 with limited powers within the superior court in each county
8 may be established? Just precisely what is meant by 9 functional division, both in 5.08 and 5.10.

10 DELEGATE MUDD: The only difference I think that 11 was intended in the two provisions, Delegate Adkins, with 12 respect to functional divisions was that with respect to 13 the superior court, because there is a superior court in 14 every county. The functional division would in all proba-
15 bility be a county functional division, whereas with re-
16 spect to the district court it might be a functional
17 district to share the district load.

18 THE CHAIRMAN: Delegate Mudd, I don't believe
19 your answer was responsive to the question as the Chair
20 understood it. I understand the question directed to you
21 was whether the term "functional divisions" as used in 5.08,
