

1 jurisdiction the legislature is going to prescribe for
2 courts in the four-tier system.

3 DELEGATE DUKES: I didn't understand.

4 DELEGATE MUDD: It first depends on what juris-
5 diction the legislature is going to prescribe for courts
6 in the four-tier system.

7 DELEGATE DUKES: I am assuming that under
8 5.01 all judicial power must be in the four-tier courts.

9 DELEGATE MUDD: Yes.

10 DELEGATE DUKES: I want to know what authority,
11 if any, the legislature has to deal with this type problem
12 outside of the four-tier court.

13 DELEAGTE MUDD: Quasi-judicial agency and admi-
14 nistrative agency is the only way I can answer.

15 THE CHAIRMAN: I think the question was, to 16 use Delegate Dukes illustration, under this article would 17 it be competent for the legislature to set up a judicial,
18 quasi-judicial agency not under the four-tier courts to 19 try automobile negligence cases?

20 DELEGATE DUKES: It could give it minimal legis-
21 lative authority to be quasi, but it would circumvent
