

1 DELEGATE MUDD: If you define tribunal as a
2 court, I would say yes.

3 THE CHAIRMAN: Delegate Mason.

4 DELEGATE MASON: Are you suggesting we call
5 it something other than a court that they could create such
6 an agency?

7 DELEGATE MUDD: There are existing facilities
8 called courts that are not exercising a judicial power.

9 THE CHAIRMAN: Delegate Mason.

10 DELEGATE MASON: Would a court or tribunal
11 that would hear personal injury cases, automobile injury
12 cases, come under section 5.01, judicial power?

13 DELEGATE MUDD: Offhand, I would say yes.

14 THE CHAIRMAN: Delegate Mason.

15 DELEGATE MASON: How would that differ from 16 a court or tribunal created by the legislature to 17 hear personal injuries connected with employment?

18 DELEGATE MUDD: If I understand your question,
19 it would be identical; the legislature would then be
20 attempting to set up a separate court to try the same
21 type of case within the same jurisdiction that it had
