

1 have a question?

2 DELEGATE MUDD: I didn't answer Delegate Mac-
3 donald.

4 THE CHAIRMAN: Sorry; I thought the last
5 was an observation rather than question.

6 DELEGATE MACDONALD: I was clarifying.

7 DELEGATE MUDD: Our view in response to that was 8 this was peculiarly within the authority that we thought 9 might more appropriately be exercised by the court in its 10 rule making power, and that is a standing committee that 11 is always available to consider matters of this nature; and 12 these functional divisions might be more usefully availed
13 of and made better to accommodate the needs by rule making
14 power than through a public general law.

15 THE CHAIRMAN: Delegate Macdonald.

16 DELEGATE MACDONALD: Do you see any real dis-
17 advantages in giving the General Assembly the same
18 power by law?

19 DELEGATE MUDD: No. I just think it is more
20 flexible and can be more readily brought to accommodate 21 the need through rule making power; but personally I have
