

1 or quasi-judicial court such as housing court or tax
2 court as we have it now, or Workmen's Compensation Com-
3 mission, in our view these courts could probably be con-
4 tinued.

5 However, we cannot predict future needs wherein 6 it may be that some of the quasi-judicial courts or admin-
7 istrative courts as we know them today, it may be neces-
8 sary for those types of courts to become courts of record, 9 actually part of our judicial system. The only thing we 10 suggest, and as provided in 30 other state constitutions, 11 is that the legislature in its wisdom and to promote 12 flexibility should be permitted to create other courts,
13 if any, as needed.

14 THE CHAIRMAN: Delegate Taylor.

15 DELEGATE L. TAYLOR: You were saying the commit-16 tee recommendation is not geared to the future needs of 17 the people of the state, legal needs, courts.

18 DELEGATE JOHNSON: No, I would not put it in 19 that term. I think that it is just not flexible enough.
20 I think the majority members feel that by providing for 21 functional differentials they will take care of whatever