3 courts as the General Assembly may desire." Every court
4 in the State of Maryland is a constitutional court, as
5 I understand it, is that correct?

6 DELEGATE JOHNSON: That is partially correct.
7 There is wording to that effect, however, with respect
8 to the creation of other intermediate appellate courts,
9 I believe.

10 DELEGATE HARGROVE: Within our constitution.

11 THE CHAIRMAN: Delegate Raley, do you have a
12 question?

13 DELEGATE RALEY, do you have a question?

14 DELEGATE RALEY: Delegate
15 Johnson, the thing that bothered me here, I know what you
16 are trying to get at. I do not like to see that the 17 legislature is forever excluded from being creative.
18 For instance, somebody mentioned a family court. Maybe
19 the judicial system by rule would not do anything about 20 it. I think that, and the General Assembly which has the 21 pressures of the people --

THE CHAIRMAN: Do you have a question, Delegate
Raley?

DELEGATE RALEY: I have a question. I was trying
