

1 out of the basic concept of the unified judicial system.
2 It would open the door to the creation of miscellaneous
3 courts throughout the whole judicial structure.

4 I suggest that this is quite unnecessary.

5 The proposal of the majority in the majority
6 report recommends you leave completely to the legislature
7 the creation of such administrative courts, elect the 8 Appeals Tax Court, elect the Zoning Boards, elect the 9 Workmen's Compensation Commission, and the many other
10 administrative courts. It would still be within the power 11 of the legislature the full control to create courts in 12 that order. It would not and should not be left to the 13 legislature to create courts within the unified four-tier
14 judicial structure. That is a matter of internal house-
15 keeping, which I suggest should be left to the courts.

16 Let us take just one example; for example, it 17 has been suggested that the legislature might, or some 18 people might advocate or want creation of a Domestic 19 Relations Court. That is a court which would be a com-
20 posite, I take it, of certain functions which are now 21 assigned to the Superior Court level. It would probably
