

1
2
3 minutes left of controlled debate in this portion.

4 DELEGATE MUDD: Thank you, Mr. Chairman.

5 I respectfully disagree, ladies and gentlemen
6 of the committee, with two observations by the distinguished
7 Delegate Johnson who speaks for the minority.

8 It seems to me that this is a "gut" issue.
9 It goes to the core of the overall idea of the majority.

10 We do not imply that it is the intention of the 11 minority at this time or at any future time to disrupt 12 or impair in any way the unified court structure proposed by the majority report.

13 We do suggest that by this amendment the 14 minority may inadvertently open the gates to the 15 legislature, not necessarily now, but in the years to 16 come, unintentionally create a special court that could 17 completely disrupt the orderly housekeeping responsibilities of a unified, uniform court structure.

18 It is that fear which prompts the majority 19 to urge you to vote against this amendment, which in our 20 humble judgment is the key responsibility of the majority 21 to have this convention adopt the essentials of a unified,