3 Now there is already concern about the question
4 of who will be sitting in juvenile court.

5 Is this a concern? Certainly so. Not one
6 person in this room would want to have his 13 or 14-year 7 old son tried by the same judge who just recently got 8 through a murder case, or who just recently got through a 9 bad robbery case.

10 Specialties must exist within our system, or 11 it will be self-defeating.

12 We know about a tax court at this time, operated 13 by specialists. We know about an administrative court
14 called Workmen's Compensation Commission, which handles 15 specialties.

16 As the vote population increases, it will be 17 necessary for us to consider worrying about who is going 18 to try both cases. There will be more airplanes and more 19 helicopters. Who will be handling those cases?

20 If you don't have some advance information in these 21 fields you must do a lot of advance study before each case. This is fine as long as the docket is not crowded, but as the population grows, and these cases
