3 additional desk shall be added, and the additional secre-
4 tary to assist that particular assistant, rather than 5 to permit the stockholders of the corporation to make 6 such a decision? Would not the stockholders be more sus-
7 ceptible to outside influences, rather than an awareness 8 of the orderly operation and management and function of 9 the internal affairs of particular business? And should 10 not those officers be the ones to determine whether or 11 not that additional desk and the accompanying secretarial 12 assistant, et cetera, be added.

13 It seems to me that logic persuades us that 14 the answer is certainly in the affirmative, and by using 15 that simple parallel, I think you can appreciate what is 16 being attempted to be done by the majority report.

17 Therefore, I would urge you to vote against this 18 amendmpt, which would certainly disrupt orderly 19 business procedure.

20 THE CHAIRMAN: Does any delegate desire to speak
21 in favor of the amendment? Delegate Malkus?

DELEGATE MALKUS: Mr. President, I want to recall to the Members of the Legislature that several
