

1 the integrity of the four-tier system and does not depart
2 appreciably from what we have today. I urge that the
3 amendment be defeated.

4 THE CHAIRMAN: Any other delegate desire to
5 speak in favor of the amendment?

6 Delegate B. Miller?

7 DELEGATE B. MILLER: I have a question, Mr.
8 Chairman. You now have two questions.

9 THE CHAIRMAN: To whom is the question directed?

10 DELEGATE B. MILLER: My first question is to 11 Chairman Mudd.

12 THE CHAIRMAN: I first have to see if someone
13 desires to speak in favor of the amendments.

14 Delegate Churchill Murray.

15 DELEGATE C. MURRAY: Mr. Chairman, fellow dele-
16 gates, it is rather entertaining to see how the discussion
17 flows back into my lap, because my very good neighbor and 18 very good friend used a business with which I am quite
19 familiar to illustrate his point.

20 Flexibility -- and I am, as so often is the 21 case, uncertain as to the proper course to take. What
