

1 continuation of that business exclusively, because it is
2 impossible to know what the needs will be.

3 I shall support the amendment.

4 THE CHAIRMAN: Thank you.

5 Delegate Mudd, would you yield to a question from 6 Delegate Beatrice Miller?

7 DELEGATE MUDD: Yes, Mr. Chairman.

8 THE CHAIRMAN: Delegate Miller, there is avail-
9 able just one minute. If you could state your question
10 quickly and let Delegate Mudd answer it.

11 DELEGATE B. MILLER: Could you tell us precisely
12 just what the word "exclusively" would prevent the legis-
13 lature from doing and why the majority has put it in.

14 DELEGATE MUDD: Well, in answer to that question,
15 Delegate Miller, it has been put in to emphasize, I
16 should say, exactly what has existed under the present
17 Maryland Constitution, as very ably explained by Delegate
18 Case a couple of minutes ago.

19 The situation under the present Constitution is 20 that the word "exclusively" is not therein contained,
21 but the judicial power of the state is vested in certain
