

1 get to the rule making power, that the court shall not 2 have power that cannot be checked by the very people who 3 are giving them that power; and what we would be doing 4 is delegating forever the power of the people to have any 5 say in the administration of their courts.

6 While, as I say, this is unlikely to happen
7 in this particular area, if they were ever to want this 8 power, I can think of the general principle that we should 9 delegate when we have to pay, or we give the power to 10 judge our lives, we pay them to have the courtrooms to do
11 do it in, the salary to do it, and we have absolutely
12 nothing to say about it. This is a horrible principle.
13 I think it is a principle. I think it is a principle
14 that we have to stand up and be counted on. It is unfor-
15 tunate it comes on an issue which is really not a question
16 that the legislature will really get into. It is the 17 principle that is involved.

18 I think we should support this amendment.

19 THE CHAIRMAN: Delegate Marvin Smith, do you
20 desire to speak in opposition?

21 DELEGATE M. SMITH: I desire to speak in
