

1 THE CHAIRMAN: Delegate Mudd.

2 DELEGATE MUDD: The distinction I get, Dele-
3 gate Della, is that the Constitutional amendment proposed,
4 with language suggested by the legislature, perhaps, was
5 adopted with that language in it.

6 It was not a secondary thought or subsequent
7 amendment by the legislature. It was part of the Constitu-
8 tional amendment creating the court, and not by action of
9 the legislature, except in initiating the Constitutional
10 amendment.

11 THE CHAIRMAN: Is there any further discussion?
12 Are you ready for the question?

13 The question arises on the adoption of Amendment
14 No. 5 with respect to section 5.06. A vote Aye is a vote
15 in favor of the adoption of the amendment; a vote No, a
16 vote against.

17 Has every delegate voted?

18 Does any delegate desire to change his vote?
19 The Clerk will record the vote.

20 There being five votes in the affirmative and 21 44 in the negative, the motion is carried.
