

1 information as to what is going on in each other's com-
2 mittees, so that for that purpose, I would strongly
3 suggest we have former judges, we have a very prominent 4 attorney from Charles Street, we have a lot of prominent 5 people here from Baltimore City, and in fact we have a
6 former president of the Baltimore City delegation in the 7 House of Delegates, so that between them, certainly we 8 can get a first class leader to help us along in acquir-
9 ing information. Very frankly, I have found the Sunpapers
10 very disappointing so far. All that I have heard about 11 mostly is a pretty good fight entitled, Eney versus 12 Malkus. Other than that, I am having a hard time keeping 13 up, so that in great measure, Mr. President, it seems 14 like we are still out of bounds here. We are moving along 15 very slowly. We will get the information at some point, 16 but we have to remember that unless we make provision for 17 it, we will not be hearing these other witnesses who are 18 not designated to appear before our individual committees, 19 and for that reason, I strongly suggest that we make some 20 show now so that we can do this promptly, according to 21 the schedule outlined by the President, we only have
