

1 Constitution to the various committees; attached as 2 the last half dozen pages is the same material that is in 3 the first four pages but arranged by committees, so that 4 you can see for each committee what portions of the present
5 Constitution have been assigned for study.

6 Let me again repeat what I said on Friday,
7 that the effort has been made to assign provisions of 8 the existing Constitution to committees for study in 9 such a manner that only one committee has the primary res-
10 ponsibility. Other committees have had their attention 11 called to provisions, in some instances, even though they 12 are not primarily assigned that provision. Obviously, we 13 would hope that you are familiar with all of the present
14 Constitution and the purpose of the memorandum is merely 15 an effort to fix the responsibility for detailed con-
16 sideration of particular provisions.

17 Are there any announcements by committee
18 chairmen? Delegate Boyer?

19 DELEGATE BOYER: Mr. President, your Committee
20 on General Provisions has been meeting earlier today.
21 We have had some testimony today from Dr. Carnahan,
