

1 a point of personal privilege.

2 I would like to introduce the 128 students
3 from Woodlawn Senior High School who are with us in the 4 balcony, and their three teachers, Garland Brown, Holmes
5 Clay and Harry Graybill. They have been here, they have 6 seen and observed some of the things that are going on and 7 I understand will observe this session for the next hour or 8 so.

9 THE PRESIDENT: Delighted to have them present.

10 The Chair recognizes Delegate Johnson for the 11 purpose of making an announcement.

12 DELEGATE JOHNSON; Mr. President and fellow
13 delegates, I rise to a point of personal privilege, in 14 spite of the devastating defeat of the minority report
15 of the Judicial Branch last week, I am proud to say at 16 least one of our members stayed in there and kept on 17 pitching over the long weekend we just enjoyed.

18 I am very pleased to have the honor to announce 19 the single victory of Delegate Susan Kahl, who moved one
20 step closer to the envied position of housewife, by recently
21 becoming engaged to be married to Mr. Thomas Phoebus
