

1 of the Baltimore Orioles, the 1967 American League
2 Rookie Pitcher of the Year.

3 I am certain that you will be happy to join me
4 in wishing this fine couple every happiness. (Applause)

5 THE PRESIDENT: Delegate Johnson.

6 DELEGATE JOHNSON: Mr. President and ladies
7 and gentlemen, I feel that we have not lose a delegate
8 but gained a 20-game winner.

9 THE PRESIDENT: The Chair wishes ho recognize
10 the presence of 154 students from Kensington Junior
11 High School in Montgomery High School. Delighted to have 12 them with us also. (Applause)

13 The Chair recognizes Delegate Burdette for 14 the purpose of making an announcement.

15 DELEGATE BURDETTE: Mr. President, under the
16 heading of personal privilege, I should like to call
17 the attention fo the Convention to the birthday today
18 of a distinguished delegate from Baltimore County. Dr.
19 Clinton I, Winslow has been for 40 years an eminent
20 professor in this state. He is an alumnus, among other
21 schools, of the University of Nebraska.