

1           When I was a student there more than 30 years ago,
2 his name was already legendary for scholarship and for 3 integrity.

4           I have been studying his works and his words
5 for a third of a century, and I should like to have the 6 privilege, Mr. President, of asking the Convention to 7 join on this birthday in tribute to Dr. Winslow's long and 8 continuing service to our state and country. (Applause)

9           THE PRESIDENT: For what purpose does Delegate
10 Bard rise?

11           DELEGATE BARD: I would like to rise on the question
12 of personal privilege, Mr. Chairman.

13           THE PRESIDENT: State your privilege.

14           DELEGATE BARD: First, I would like to second 15 the statement with regard to Dr. Winslow and secondly, 16 I would like to announce the presence of Mrs. Bard, who 17 is here today, because we had the privilege of celebrating
18 belatedly our wedding anniversary. We could not celebrate
19 it on time because of the Convention. She is present
20 today. (Applause)

21           THE PRESIDENT: The Chair recognizes Delegate
