

1 will come under consideration later, the legislature could
2 not create such a broad fiscal officer, free of guber-
3 natorial appointment. Does that answer your question?

4 DELEGATE GRANT: Yes.

5 THE CHAIRMAN: Are there any further questions
6 of the Vice-Chairman? Delegate Mason.

7 DELEGATE MASON: Delegate Adkins, did I under-
8 stand you correctly to state that if we have an elected
9 Comptroller that would constitute a plural Executive,
10 which isn't good for this State?

11 DELEGATE ADKINS: You certainly did not under-
12 stand me to say a plural Executive would be good for this 13 State. No. I do not think a plural Executive/^{good}for this 14 State.

15 THE CHAIRMAN: You misunderstood Delegate Mason,
16 I believe.

17 DELEGATE ADKINS: Maybe I did.

18 THE CHAIRMAN: Delegate Mason, would you restate
19 your question?

20 DELEGATE MASON: I said, wasn't it your testi-
21 money that the election of a Comptroller would constitute
