2 Those of you not familiar with the legislative 3 practice and the electrical board should familiarize your-
4 selves with the switch on your desk. I call your attention
5 to the fact that under the rules adopted by this Convention,
6 it is a serious offense for any person, Delegate or not,
7 to operate the switch which controls the voting board.
8 In the center of that switch is a white ribbed circle,
9 which you can, with your finger, pull forward and back.
10 That operates the signal for pages. If you want a page,
11 flip that center button back and forth several times. It
12 will light a light at either side of the rostrum and a page
13 will come to your desk.

14 I think the procedure for the operation of the 15 rest of the lights has by now been determined by nearly 16 all Delegates. I might add that the one fortunate part of 17 this device is that the presiding officer can absolutely
18 control because until a switch here is turned on, you can 19 flip the button all you want, and it has absolutely no
20 effect.
