

1 concurrent powers for the Court and the legislature. In 2 fact, there was a motion that a rule should not supersede
3 a law for at least two years, until two years had elapsed
4 and that motion was voted down and it seems to me that if we 5 are willing to grant concurrent powers to the Court and to 6 the legislature we ought to be willing to grant coextensive
7 powers in this one area, powers which mean that the Governor 8 would be subject to the legislative veto and I urge you to 9 adopt this amendment and strike the temporary provisions
10 starting on page 6.

11 THE CHAIRMAN: Delegate Morgan.

12 DELEGATE MORGAN: Mr. Chairman, I am going to have 13 to speak in opposition to this amendment because of what 14 happened to the Committee. The Committee spent at least 15 four days on these sections of the executive order. We went 16 up the hill and down the hill and finally we all came to an 17 agreement that the -- and the agreement was that the legis-
18 lature would have two years in which to make the initial 19 organization of the Executive Branch of the government and 20 designate the principal departments and that if it did not 21 accomplish that within the two years, then the Governor
