

1 order would in effect have the force of law and therefore,
2 it would have to go through this procedure.

3 If, on the other hand, it is merely a reassign-
4 ment of something which is now within the executive power
5 but is not otherwise prescribed by legislation then it need
6 not be done as a result of the executive power.

7 THE CHAIRMAN: Delegate Mason.

8 DELEGATE MASON: Mr. Chairman, Delegate Adkins
9 explained what I had intended to speak to.

10 THE CHAIRMAN: Delegate James.

11 DELEGATE JAMES: Mr. Chairman, there is one
12 point that I would like to make here which I think the 13 Members should understand.

14 If this Convention is not here to really have the 15 seed of a constitutional impact, it would be very conceivable
16 without very strong cooperation between the executive and 17 legislative branch that the legislature would continually
18 disapprove the reorganization plans of the executive. This 19 is easily conceivable unless this type of cooperation
20 existed, so that even in spite of the language of 4.18 that 21 there only be 20 principal departments, if the legislature
