

1 THE CHAIRMAN: State the privilege.

2 DELEGATE H. TAYLOR: For the last few days, I have 3 tried to get the floor, and this is no criticism of the 4 Chair, because I haven't been able to get out of my seat.
5 Some of the Delegates here seem to have ⁱⁿsprings/their hip
6 pockets and by the time I get my hand on the mike and raise 7 my hand, there are usually five people standing. By the 8 time the fast starters have run out of wind, the consensus 9 has been reached in the back row and I find out that this is 10 usually irrevocable, and therefore, I save my breath.

11 But yesterday, in trying to speed up my grab for 12 the mike, I slipped a disc in my back, and I was wondering
13 whether or not there is any Workmen's Compensation, or 14 similar provision, to take care of us Constitutional
15 Convention casualties. But, for the next few days, my good
16 friend, Delegate Taylor, who is younger than I and bigger
17 than I and, therefore, easier to see, has agreed if I am
18 unable to sublimate any inclination to talk on every subject
19 that comes before us to take the floor for me and transfer 20 it to me and I would be very grateful to the Chair if they 21 would permit this arrangement for the next two days. (Laughter)
