

1 Constitution."

2 THE PRESIDENT: Minority Report R&P-1(B) will be 3 distributed.

4 Consideration has been given during the luncheon
5 recess to suggestions from some delegates that inasmuch 6 as many of you have made arrangements to stay down this 7 evening, though normally you would return to your homes,
8 that we have an evening session.

9 There has also been an inquiry -- I don't say a 10 suggestion -- from one or two delegates as to whether we 11 would recess earlier, adjourn earlier this afternoon,
12 because of the conditions of the roads.

13 After discussing the matter, we thought it
14 inadvisable to have an evening session this evening, for 15 several reasons: One, the delegates have not planned on 16 it, and this could seriously inconvenience delegates who 17 have no such plans, are are not for one reason or another
18 able to stay down this evening; and secondly, some com-
19 mittee meetings have been scheduled, some of which are 20 very, very important; and thirdly, the feeling on the part 21 of the officers, the reason I think shared by most of the
