

1 governor, but it seems to me rather selfish for these
2 theorists who believe in single heads to not have it
3 really nice and clean, and even have a single head for the 4 educational department too.

5 I personally don't favor this, but it seems 6 selfish to me when they get immunity, when we say that they 7 are to be treated differently, that then they say "Well, 8 no one else must be treated differently, regardless of the 9 wisdom of the legislature in the future. You must not 10 grant anyone else this privilege."

11 Now, it seems to me this is a very selfish thing
12 to do.

13 I think we should trust the legislature to 14 provide for a department to be headed by a Board of 15 Commissioners, if in their wisdom this is necessary.

16 Now, why you are unwilling to trust them for this 17 I cannot understand, especially when you say that the 18 Eney Commission lost its nerve and didn't go far enough,
19 and you admit, well, I guess they were right in not going 20 completely to the dead end street, but cutting off at say 21 "S" Street since you are more familiar with Washington, but
