

1 we don't need that, in that particular position. But to 2 have a board that decides, selects and controls, if you
3 please, the professional head of the organization.

4 Now, I think we ought to get clear what we are 5 voting on first.

6 THE CHAIRMAN: Delegate Pullen, the Chair suggests
7 to you that you have completely misunderstood Delegate
8 Storm's point, and perhaps the effect of Delegate Maurer's
9 amendment.

10 The effect, if the Chair properly understood your 11 comment, would seem to me to be exactly the converse of 12 what you just said.

13 Delegate Pullen.

14 DELEGATE PULLEN: Mr. Chairman, I have known this 15 gentleman and loved him for 30 years. I don't misunderstand
16 him one bit.

17 THE CHAIRMAN: Very well,

18 DELEGATE PULLEN: No, but Mr. Chairman, let's look 19 at this matter again. I am no lawyer, but I can read the 20 English language, and it says a principal head. That does 21 not mean a board, does it? Does it include a corporate head
