

1 As all of you know, the Constitutional Conven-
2 tion of New York adjourned a few days ago and submitted
3 to the people of that State a Constitution which they 4 had drafted. We have requested sufficient copies of 5 the Constitution promulgated by the New York Convention
6 to furnish each delegate with a copy. There will be 7 a slight delay because we are informed that the copies 8 which were fairly widely distributed on the last day of 9 the session of the New York Convention were not correct
10 in that there were some last-minute changes. I under-11 stand, however, that we will have copies by the middle 12 of next week.

13 We have also requested copies of the Consti-
14 tutional Convention of Rhode Island, which just a few 15 days ago adjourned after their sessions lasting over a
16 period of about two years. These documents will be here
17 also, not quite so promptly as the New York documents,
18 but by the end of next week we hope.

19 At the meeting of the chairmen yesterday to 20 discuss progress, it was suggested that it would be 21 desirable if all committee chairmen would keep the
