

1 passed by the General Assembly are in fact passed by a
2 much greater majority than three-fifths. Most of them
3 are passed by an overwhelming percentage.

4 THE CHAIRMAN: Delegate Pascal.

5 DELEGATE PASCAL: That the majority recommenda-
6 tion would have the tendency to improve the attendance?

7 THE CHAIRMAN: Delegate Gilchrist.

8 DELEGATE GILCHRIST: I certainly don't think
9 it will hurt the attendance.

10 THE CHAIRMAN: Delegate Pascal.

11 DELEGATE PASCAL: I said majority. Do you
12 think the majority recommendation would have a tendency
13 to improve the attendance?

14 THE CHAIRMAN: Delegate Gilchrist.

15 DELEGATE GILCHRIST: I think the majority recom-
16 mendation would have a tendency to hurt attendance because
17 it will not require so many people to pass bills.

18 THE CHAIRMAN: Delegate Pascal.

19 DELEGATE PASCAL: Do you really think it is
20 going to be a problem with 11 people in the Senate and 35
21 in the House? Do you think a competent and honest legislator
