

1 delegate wants to assassinate a delegate, you want that 2 public?

3 DELEGATE SHERBOW: I think he will be sufficient-
4 ly responsible that he will not injure another delegate.

5 I am talking where a man is appointed to the 6 United States Supreme Court, or as Solicitor
7 General, or a State officer, where somebody who has had a 8 bad time, or thinks he has, writes in a letter that is 9 so bad that the newspaper says, when they get it, unless 10 we were protected against libel we wouldn't handle it.

11 These are the kinds of things I am talking about.
12 I don't think the members of the Senate and the House are 13 going to be guilty of character assassination.

14 THE CHAIRMAN: Delegate Della.

15 DELEGATE DELLA: When the nominees are confirmed
16 the Senate is meeting as a Committee of the Whole. The 17 House has nothing to do with those appointments. It is up
18 to the Senate.

19 There are times when a person is hurt, his 20 character is hurt by such statements, that sometimes can't 21 even be proven, and if you are going to have that in open
