

1 Attorney General. At 4 o'clock we will hear from Mr.
2 William J. D. Boyd of the National Municipal League, who 3 is considered to be one of the outstanding experts on the 4 unicameral system in the United States.

5 Tomorrow morning at 9:30 we will hear from 6 Mr. Donald Shasteen, the Administrative Assistant to 7 Senator Carl Curtis, of Nebraska, who is quite familiar
8 with the operation of the unicameral system in Nebraska.

9 At 11 o'clock we will hear from a former member of the 10 General Assembly and our United States Senator from Mary-
11 land, Senator Daniel Brewster. At 12, from the Senate
12 Minority Leader, the Honorable Edward T. Hall; at 3 o'clock
13 from the Honorable J. Glenn Beall, Minority Leader of the 14 House of Delegates, and Howard E. Denniss, President of the 15 Young Republicans, and at 4:30 from the Honorable Paul
16 Sarbanes, Member of the House.

17 THE PRESIDENT: Delegate Mudd?

18 DELEGATE MUDD: Mr. President, the Committee on 19 the Judicial Branch will reconvene again this afternoon
20 at 4 p.m. for a special order of business; and tomorrow
21 morning we resume hearings, and at 10 o'clock we have the