

1 However, I do not presume to say and would not 2 urge what the legal effect of the failure would be. I would 3 simply say that we tried to impose a duty upon the General
4 Assembly and would leave to the courts the consequences
5 of the failure to follow the duty.

6 THE CHAIRMAN: Is there any further question,
7 Delegate Storm?

8 DELEGATE STORM: One more thing:

9 Mr. Gallagher, if a clerk made a mistake in 10 recording the committee votes, or if some other mistake
11 were made in the committee records, would this perhaps make 12 a bond issue invalid?

13 THE CHAIRMAN: Delegate Gallagher.

14 DELEGATE GALLAGHER: All I would say to that is 15 in the Redwood versus Lane case which I referred to, a 16 clerk did make a mistake. He pulled down what he thought 17 was a senate bill, which was in fact the same number, but 18 it was the house bill.

19 As a result of the handling of the matter physi-
20 cally, there was actually no Yea and Nay vote entered in 21 the journal with respect to this case, because the printer
