

1 it very important that the votes of the major Committees,
2 I don't mean the subcommittees, like Senator James mentioned,
3 be done, or be recorded so that everybody will know who is 4 voting for, who is voting against and so that they can be 5 held responsible for it.

6 THE CHAIRMAN: Your time has expired.

7 DELEGATE GILL: People will then have a chance to 8 take a part in this democratic process.

9 I hope you will vote against the amendment.

10 THE CHAIRMAN: The Chair desires to interrupt
11 the debate to make this suggestion:

12 The statements just made by the Chairman of the 13 Committee as to the interpretation of Section 3.17, while 14 clear as to the intent to the Committee, may raise consider-
15 able question in construction of the Constitution.

16 The Chair has suggested to the Chairman of the 17 Committee that consideration be given following the 18 suggestion of Delegate Hardwicke that the portions of this 19 section which the Committee Chairman referred to as those 20 to which substantial compliance would be sufficient, be 21 put in a separate section and perhaps be phrased in such a
