

1 printed and distributed? Will the average attorney be able
2 to get them inexpensively? Will they be furnished to all?
3 Will the new Constitution be footnoted with things like 4 this?

5 Would you explain that?

6 THE CHAIRMAN: I would hope that the transcripts
7 of the debates which this Convention is directed to have 8 published will be published in printed volume form, and 9 be readily available, certainly in all law libraries. It 10 would certainly be available to lawyers, if there were 11 sufficient demand. I have no doubt that it will in time 12 prove to be the most important volume for any lawyer who has 13 a constitutional problem to solve. A short answer to your 14 question is that, pursuant to the enabling act, plans will 15 be made to publish the debates.

16 Delegate Henderson.

17 DELEGATE HENDERSON: I am having a little 18 difficulty --

19 THE CHAIRMAN: Delegate Henderson.

20 DELEGATE HENDERSON: I merely suggest this to the 21 Chairman. I am having a little difficulty with the words,
