

1 hear from Mr. Paul Wolman, who is Chairman of the Board
2 of Parole, and Senator James Pine, of Baltimore City, who 3 is representing the Legislative Liaison Committee.

4 THE PRESIDENT: Delegate Sherbów?

5 DELEGATE SHERBOW: Mr. President, the Committee
6 on State Finance and Taxation will continue its hearings 7 this afternoon at 4 o'clock, at which time members of the 8 Legislature will be heard on the subject of the budget.
9 Other members of the Legislature will be invited to attend
10 other hearings, probably to be held next week on this and 11 other subjects relating to the financial aspect of govern-
12 ment.

13 There will be hearings tomorrow, Friday and 14 next week, all of which will be posted, so that the dele-
15 gates will have ample notice, and so will the public.

16 THE PRESIDENT: Any other announcements by 17 committee chairmen? Delegate Boyer?

18 DELEGATE BOYER: Mr. President, the Committee
19 on General Provisions will continue the deliberations and 20 hopefully conclude tomorrow the phase of higher education.
21 This afternoon we have Dr. William Shannon, Associate
Executive Director of the American Association of Junior
