

1 THE CHAIRMAN: Delegate Gallagher.

2 DELEGATE GALLAGHER: Yes, I would agree that
3 the explanation as given this morning is the intention 4 that the committee had with respect to the use of the 5 word "adjoining" in 3.02.

6 To be consistent and without having to consult with 7 my committee, and without having consulted the other 20
8 sponsors on this particular amendment, which someone was 9 kind enough to put my name at the beginning of, I
10 would say that, adjoining would continue to be interpreted 11 in the same way that I interpreted it with respect to 12 3.02.

13 THE CHAIRMAN: Delegate Adkins.

14 DELEGATE ADKINS: So that I am really not trying 15 to pinpoint any differences in interpretation, because 16 I think that might only serve to confuse rather than to 17 clarify.

18 All I would like to get is an affirmative state-
19 ment that what you said this morning insofar as your then 20 definition of the word adjoining and compact, was intended 21 to be controlling insofar as the use of those words in
