4 However, I defy any person in this room to 5 locate all the regulations and rules and statutes which 6 govern any particular legal activity in this case. It
7 simply cannot be done.

8 I am not advocating that this Constitution attempt 9 to lay down a system of compilation. I am bringing to the 10 attention of this body, that it has to be mandated to be 11 done and it has to be mandated with teeth in it. We will 12 have 197 bodies cranking out laws, and this is what the 13 proposal said, that all these activities, and there are 14 cited statutes, resolutions, rules, regulations, ordinances,
15 proclamations and other actions having the force of law.
16 These are being compiled in a compilation that can be under-17 stood.

18 The Federal Government went through this in 1938
19 and came out with what is known as the Federal Register, or 20 the CFR. By consulting the CFR it is possible to ascertain
21 what the Federal Government by its many, many law-making
