

1 DELEGATE SHERBOW: May I invite attention to 2 the fact that every chairman is aware of his assignment?
3 May I suggest that we now consider, so much as having been 4 read, the reading of the full committee assignments?

5 THE PRESIDENT: It is moved that so much as has 6 been read of the committee assignments be considered as a 7 reading of the entire list of committee assignments and 8 appointment of chairmen. Is there a second?

9 (Seconded.)

10 THE PRESIDENT: Is there any discussion? Are 11 you ready for the question? All those in favor, signify 12 by saying Aye; contrary, No. It is so ordered.

13 A few other announcements pertaining largely 14 to housekeeping matters that I overlooked yesterday or 15 did not have in mind at the time.

16 First, in order that the delegates and the com-17 mittee chairmen may plan their schedule affairs for the 18 balance of the day, every effort will be made to meet for 19 this session promptly at 2 p.m. To that end, the call 20 bell will be sounded at quarter of the hour, and again at 21 five minutes of the hour; and we will start promptly at 2 p.m. I would anticipate in the next week or so that the
