

1 The effort will be made to have proposals intro-
2 duced by being delivered to the Chief Clerk reproduced
3 immediately, even before they are formally presented so 4 that copies may be in your possession when they are for-
5 mally presented.

6 Committees undoubtedly will have work that they 7 want duplicated and want duplicated promptly. At the 8 moment, there is a logjam, not because there is too much
9 to be done, but because the requisite number of skilled 10 persons and machinery to meet the demand is not available.

11 It is hard to estimate how many copies of things
12 should be made. We had 600 copies of the program printed, 13 thinking that this was at least 50 per cent more than 14 any reasonable demand. I think we have left something 15 like 10 or 12 printed programs, and perhaps as many as 16 25 or 30 irritated persons who want copies. We will have 17 some additional ones printed. It was just a case of 18 never anticipating that there would ever be anything
19 like this demand.

20 We had planned regularly to reproduce 300 copies
21 of everything that comes through, so that there will be a
