

1 and the time when the Committee might take it up affords
2 the minimum of four days.

3 Now, I agree it is certainly possible under 4 these rules, or under any type of a cutoff rule that you
5 enunciate that a minority might not be ready to present 6 their report, in which case the proper procedure would 7 be to move the Committee of the Whole, set the matter
8 as a special order of business, one day or two days
9 following the printing and distribution of the Minority 10 Report, provided in any event it shall be no later than 11 such a date. No matter what rule we draft, we are certain-12 ly always going to be exposed to the possibility that 13 a minority for one reason or another will not get their 14 views to the Convention within the time permitted by the 15 rule, but as long as the rule, Rule 27 guarantees the 16 minority that the same equal treatment with respect to 17 printing of its report, certainly a minority being dis-
18 criminated against in the sense that they weren't printing,
19 it could appeal to that rule, and appeal to the god con-
20 science of the Convention in support of a motion to set
21 the matter for special order of business. I mean I think
