

1 Convention is designed only for one purpose, and that is 2 to serve you who are the elected delegates, trying to 3 perform a task, and if we can't meet your demands, then 4 we are not serving the purpose of my staff.

5 Already we know and are mindful of some short-
6 ages. We are trying to overcome these. The principal 7 one of these is perhaps the lack of space within which 8 to put things. This is indeed serious because already 9 you have quite an accumulation, and you will get more.

10 I hope by the end of this week we will have 11 delivered a number of four- or five-drawer file cabinets
12 so that in your committee room each of you can at least 13 have for your own use a drawer of a file cabinet in ad-
14 dition to your desk. If you find this is not sufficient,
15 or if you have any other suggestions, I would greatly
16 appreciate it if you would pass them on or let your com-
17 mittee chairman know so that he can pass them on.

18 There is some confusion also about other pro-
19 cedural matters -- mail room and pages, telephones, et 20 cetera. We had hoped the telephone system would be com-
21 pletely set up and in full operation by Friday of last
