

1 Senator Raley's Subcommittee. In this connection I invite 2 all the delegates to furnish the Committee with any 3 proposals they may have in mind for changes in the rules.
4 Although the Convention retains the power to change the 5 rules up to the very last day, there comes a time when we 6 would like to have the rules, if not printed, at least in 7 somewhat a semi-permanent form; and we would like to put 8 in one collection all the various changes we have made up
9 to now; so I urge you, if you do have some suggestions,
10 try to get them to the Committee by the early part of 11 next week.

12 THE PRESIDENT: Any further announcements by 13 committee chairmen? Delegate Schloeder?

14 DELEGATE SCHLOEDER: Mr. President, I would 15 like to direct this question to you, in your former role as 16 Constitutional Convention Commission Chairman.

17 As I think many others, I have received a copy
18 of a memorandum by Kenneth Lasson, relating to church
19 freedom and church and State relationship in Maryland. I
20 wonder if you might explain the genesis of this memorandum?

21 THE PRESIDENT: The memorandum is a research
