

1 memorandum prepared for the Commission, which will be pre-
2 sented in Volume II, I think it is, of the Commission's 3 Reports. Since that volume is not now printed and will 4 not be printed for some time, and since some of the dele-
5 gates have seen references to this memorandum and have 6 asked for it, we circulated it to them in this form. Dele-
7 gate Clarke?

8 DELEGATE CLARKE: Mr. President, ladies and 9 gentlemen of the Convention, I would like to move that 10 from this day forward, and that each day that this Conven-
11 tion is in session, that the reading of one be considered
12 the reading of all of the proposals introduced by Delegate
13 Finch. Is there a second?

14 (There was no response.)

15 DELEGATE CLARKE: Mr. Chairman, in the interest
16 of freedom of speech, which includes the right of freedom
17 to think and to write, I withdraw my motion.

18 THE PRESIDENT: Delegate White?

19 DELEGATE WHITE: Mr. President, being a firm
20 believer in the golden rule, which I believe is a good
21 guideline for this Convention and for individuals, I wish
