

1 that your Committee is the most neglected committee in 2 the assignment of staff of any. It is now high on the 3 agenda of replacement.

4 The Committee on General Provisions, Delegate
5 Boyer.

6 DELEGATE BOYER: Mr. President, unaware of the 7 contemplated announcement of the Chair that the chairmen
8 of the committees will meet this afternoon, the Committee
9 on General Provisions had tentatively set a short re-
10 organizational meeting for this afternoon. I don't think 11 it is quite that important; so I think we will cancel our 12 meeting for this afternoon and meet tomorrow morning in the 13 Committee Room at 9 a.m. sharp. At that time, I would like 14 to announce at this time to members of the Committee, we 15 will have a witness who will be very important, and I
16 would suggest that you attend on time.

17 THE PRESIDENT: The Committee on Style, Drafting
18 and Arrangement, Delegate Penniman.

19 DELEGATE PENNIMAN: At this time I have no
20 announcement to make. We will hold a meeting beginning
21 sometime next week, but at this time there are no meetings
