

1 Everybody else who is interested, including
2 the delegates are welcome to appear also.

3 THE PRESIDENT: Delegate Kiefer.

4 DELEGATE KIEFER: Mr. President, the Committee
5 on Personal Rights and the Preamble concluded this morning
6 its general hearings on due process and equal protection, ~~and~~ 7 a very successful appearance of Mr. Joseph Rauh of Washington,
8 D.C. There will be a few other odds and ends to clear up
9 in connection with this subject but starting this afternoon
10 at 3 o'clock the committee will begin to hear ^{upon} people on 11 wire tapping, rights of privacy, et cetera. We have a 12 special person coming from Washington, Mr. Brian Gettings,
13 at 3 o'clock. However, I would ask the Committee members
14 to assemble as quickly as possible after this meeting
15 because Mr. Charles Moylan, Assistant Attorney of Baltimore
16 City, is here and would like to talk to the Committee
17 about certain aspects of wire tapping.

18 Tomorrow morning the committee begins hearings
19 on the subjects of freedom of expression and the right to 20 know. These hearings will start promptly at 9:30 tomorrow
21 morning because of the large number of witnesses, many
