

1 of '67 working with the governor and the mayor of Baltimore
2 City indicate that they were going to employ on the basis
3 of merit and not on the basis of race, and yet our young 4 people who are college students or college graduates who 5 went to those industries for employment came back.

6 The policy at the top had been enunciated, but 7 in the personnel office, they had been told to come back
8 because there were no openings, and they waited outside 9 and some of the young white college students who were 10 sitting with them in the personnel office did not come out,
11 because they were hired.
