

1 with the Supreme Court and giving to the people of 2 Maryland every right that the Supreme Court allows under 3 this language.

4 If we change that language, if we add one word
5 to it, if we do anything to change that language, you
6 have a problem for the courts and anyone, any lawyer,
7 or any judge will tell you so.

8 THE CHAIRMAN: You have one-half minute,
9 Delegate Child.

10 DELEGATE CHILD: I think, Mr. Chairman, that 11 we should let the amendment remain where it is. I think 12 it gives every protection, every protection against dis-
13 crimination to any person and to every person.

14 I am against the amendment.

15 THE CHAIRMAN: Delegate Sherbow.

16 DELEGATE SHERBOW: Mr. Chairman, ladies and 17 gentlemen, and I shall be brief, a hundred years ago in 18 this very house petitions were filed with Congress to 19 prevent the 118 delegates from proceeding.

20 The state, even the country, was in a terrible
21 state of ferment, but that Constitutional Convention rose
