

1 anything more than you have, not because we want anything
2 more than any other American citizen has, but we just
3 think that this would be an added assurance that each day
4 of our life would not be filled with so much discrimina-
5 tion because of our race and color.

6 THE CHAIRMAN: Delegate Mitchell.

7 DELEGATE MITCHELL: A point of explanation. I
8 think Delegate Gill missed Delegate Hardwicke's state-
9 ment, that he signed the minority report, and he was 10 simply acting as a lawyer for his client when he presented
11 the majority report of the committee.

12 I would like to clear that up, and Mr. President,
13 will you please instruct the delegates that the vote now
14 is on whether we shall add sex?

15 THE CHAIRMAN: No, that is not the vote.

16 DELEGATE MITCHELL: Isn't it?

17 THE CHAIRMAN: No. The Chair will state the 18 question. The time for debate has expired. Delegate
19 Gill.

20 DELEGATE GILL: Mr. Chairman, in answer to 21 Delegate Mitchell, I would like to say that I did not
