

1 Mayor, yesterday accused the School Board of shortsighted-
2 ness," according to the Sun, "because it allocated only 3 $8,030,000 of a proposed $20,000,000 bond issue to inner-4 city school construction."

5 Just a few days ago the Tax Assessment Depart-
6 ment in the City of Baltimore released a story saying that 7 it would assess the property in a certain section of Balti-
8 more up to 60 percent of its real sales value. At the 9 present time the property is unassessed, and this property
10 is owned by many well-to-do people.

11 Quoting the Baltimore Sun again, it says that,
12 concerning recreation, in the "Action Area" of the 13 city's anti-poverty program in Baltimore, where more than 14 a fourth of the children of Baltimore live, five of the 15 City's 120 playgrounds are located.

16 Going on further, there are certain --

17 THE CHAIRMAN: Delegate Taylor, your time has 18 expired. Finish your sentence.

19 DELEGATE L. TAYLOR: In the area of legal rights
20 in the courts, many low-income people, they can be low-income
21 Negroes, and many times they don't ever receive the same