

1 provisions shall not be used against any person in any 2 proceedings, either civil or criminal in the courts or 3 before any agencies of the State."

4 THE CHAIRMAN: The amendment has been submitted
5 by Delegate Bothe. Is there a second to the amendment?

6 (Whereupon, the amendment was seconded.)

7 THE CHAIRMAN: The amendment is seconded by 8 Delegate Bennett.

9 The Chair recognizes Delegate Bothe to speak
10 to the amendment.

11 DELEGATE BOTHE: Mr. Chairman and fellow 12 delegates:

13 The Committee on Personal Rights has proposed 14 a section 4 which in many respects is analogous to the 15 4th Amendment of the United States Constitution, except 16 that it adopts language designed to guarantee that the right
17 of privacy which the Supreme Court has held to be synony-18 mous with the protection against unreasonable searches and 19 seizures extends to areas which are now in the state of 20 uncertainty, because when the 4th Amendment was placed 21 in the Constitution 200 years ago, no one had known of the
